RELLIC

SUBJECT: Possible re-establishment of selected former INI contacts.

1. Purpose. To arrange of re-establishing contact with former INI contacts listed herein, in the hope of utilizing them as a) contacts b) scouts for agent material and c) informers on the activities of minority groups, as well as d) leg men. It should be noted that at the present time INI does not possess an agent capable of performing such work.

2. Individuals listed below are, alphabetically: Gilbert I. Miall's contacts, but those from our original run by Andrew J. Stubbs for the most part of our relationship with him. They established a close personal relationship with Stubbs and collaborated in a most willing and satisfactory manner. Upon Stubbs' transfer to Berlin in June 1947, our relationship with these contacts was simply dropped. It is most probable that they have been recruited by TASS. However, it is Stubbs' opinion that we will have no difficulty in persuading them to provide us the personnel to match whatever assignments they receive from TASS.

3. Consideration should be given to re-establishing contacts with the following individuals, listed in order of preference:

a) GARNIER, George. Subject fled France in 1939 and went to Switzerland where he lived until 1945. He then proceeded to Paris and worked with a liaison group and held a position until 1946. In 1947 subject emigrated to Germany and continued his theatrical work. In 1949 subject was recruited by the French Communists, ("C.P."), and became a member of the "Bataillons Volontaires de l'Antifascisme". He was ordered to Paris where he became the head of the Director of Affairs of German migrants in France. After the liberation of Paris, subject worked closely with the V.E.M. government. Subject is apparently wanted by the French Government on "collaboration" charges, and has been protected in the past by us with the cooperation of the C.G.T. C.P. has numerous top level contacts with all major government organizations as well as with former German officials. He can be utilized along the lines outlined in Jr. B. c. 6.

b) TITTELBERGER, Leonid. Subject fled France in 1939 and settled in Riedensdorf, Bavaria, where he became a member of the city police force. He was persecuted by the Germans because of his Jewish background, but fled to Germany when the Nazis occupied Riedensdorf. In 1947 subject was employed as an agent of security police F.D. Hauptquartiere in Heidelberg. According to TASS's "prosecution" on war criminal charges has been requested by Tito's representatives, but refused by us. Subject has an elaborate net of informers in practically all CP groups in Bavaria. He may be of great use for agent recruitment and leg work.
